

INTERN PROGRAM

Óbuda-Újlak Zrt. (Óbuda Group), Hungary's leading construction project management and engineering consultancy company is looking for an Engineer Trainee for its construction site in Debrecen.

What do we expect from you?

- Currently pursuing a University Degree in architecture or civil engineering
- You are at least in your third year of your studies
- You have an active student status
- Have a confident command of the English language
- You have solid knowledge in MS Office programs (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook)
- You are proactive and eager to learn and develop

It's nice to have:

- Chinese language knowledge
- any experience in the construction industry

Place of work: Debrecen, Déli Ipari Park

Please send your CV to kARRIER@obudagroup.hu

Read more about us at www.obudagroup.hu

What you will do?

You'll learn from our experienced engineers, as your work is primarily focused on supporting them professionally:

- Project administration would be an essential part of your daily work
 - General administrative tasks
 - Assistance of site managers on the construction site
 - Track the construction progress
 - Involvement in design management task

What can you expect from us?

- Competitive intern salary
- You can be part of a truly diverse international team
- University consultation with our experts
- A supportive professional environment and development
- Long-term career opportunity
- Site visits to our ongoing projects